What you need to know.

We want everyone to have fun. So this convention will be a bit different. Every attendee will receive a ticket to vote for best booth of the show. So this means that we want every booth to be inviting and a visual marvel. The cooler your booth. The more votes you get. Tickets will be counted mid day on second day of event. Everyone should try and win this!

The event will provide music. So please refrain from loud music in your booth. All the live music will stay outside. Please remember to be respectful to everyone. We are sharing the space with others.

The event holds the right to remove anyone with no return of booth fee. Please do your best to keep your hands to yourself. Any fighting will be an automatic removal and banned from future events. In the event that there is some sort of conflict. Please advise event staff and or security. And we will handle it promptly.

We are on the side of the vendors. If any patron becomes an issue for any reason. Please let event staff know. We will handle it.

Event is not held liable for theft during or at anytime of the event. Please be mindful of the booth. We are all here to have fun, build community, and make some money at the same time. It's up to all of us to make this event amazing. Vendors must stay for the duration of the event. Booths must stay open while convention is open to public.

The Friday before the event, the event will be having a meet and greet for vendors, artists, and musicians. Appetizers will be provided. Drinks are on you. Event will be held at host hotel. Our hope is that we start building community the night before to set the tone for the show.
